STATE OF RHODE ISLAND SUPERIOR COURT

The following information is being provided pursuant to Rule 45(c), (d), and (e) of the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

- (1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.
- (2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen (14) days after service, serve upon the self-represented litigant or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.
- (3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:
 - (i) Fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
 - (ii) Requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
 - (iii) Subjects a person to undue burden.
(B) If a subpoena
 - (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
 - (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party,the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

- (1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.
- (2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

- (e) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court in which the action is pending.

SCHEDULE A

Definitions

- a. The word "documents" as used herein is meant in the broad and liberal sense and includes hand-written, typed, recorded, electronically stored, or graphic material of any kind and description, and whether a draft, copy, original, or master, including, but not limited to, e-mails, electronic versions of documents, accounts, advertisements, letters, memoranda, prospectuses, resolutions, legislation, notes of conversations, contracts, agreements, drawings, tape recordings, inter-office and intra-office memoranda, studies, working papers, corporate records, minutes of meetings, checks, diaries, diary entries, appointment books, desk calendars, photographs, transcriptions or sound recordings or any type, and documents stored on data storage modules, databases, servers, computers, tapes, discs or other memory devices, or other information retrievable from storage systems. If any document has been prepared in multiple copies which are not identical, each modified copy or non-identical copy is a separate "document." The word "document" also includes data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, by the requesting party in a reasonably usable form.
- b. The term "any" and the term "all" are intended to mean "any and all."
- c. Any word in the singular also includes the plural and vice versa.
- d. The term "RWH" refers to Roger Williams Medical Center and Roger Williams Hospital.
- e. The term "loss triangulation" means the term of art from actuarial analysis for a typical submission of claim data, including the following:
 - i. Total workers' compensation payments to all claimants in the accident year starting in 1971;
 - ii. Total cumulative workers compensation payments shown for every six months or at least each year from 1971 to the present

The attached explanation of loss triangle further explains this term.

Additional Instructions

Completion of Keeper of Records affidavit provided herewith, if returned together with the requested records, is an acceptable alternative to attendance at the presently scheduled deposition.
